WORKING CONDITIONS

Physical Demands

The Aquatics Supervisor will be expected to lift, carry, and manage equipment and supplies and may be required to practice lifesaving techniques. He/she is expected to perform guarding and instructor duties. The Supervisor will also be participating in and leading strenuous physical activities.

Environmental Conditions

The Supervisor may find the environments to be busy, noisy and will need excellent organizational and time and stress management skills to complete the required tasks. The Supervisor must be prepared to deal with injuries and accidents. He/she must also handle various chemicals including chlorine, which may prove hazardous. Given the comings and goings within the pool and the varying outside temperatures, keeping the inside environment at a consistent and comfortable temperature is difficult, causing hot and cool working conditions.

Sensory Demands

Sensory demands can include reading and use of the computer, which may cause eye strain and occasional headaches.

Mental Demands

The Pool Supervisor may have to complete several tasks and responsibilities at one time and must be prepared to deal with emergencies and stressful situations at any time. The Supervisor will also have to spend lengthy periods of time focusing on pool related activities in their life guarding activities. Both may cause eye strain and fatigue.
